Letters should be read as sounds, not names. (Note: When the test is used as an rml entry assessment, allow 4 seconds a word. Stop when 2/3 errors are made in one box.) Complete test as far as is possible to ascertain breadth of phonic knowledge and blending ability. Tester has separate copy to record reader's response for detailed assessment. This test should be given in conjunction with a real word and comprehension test to ascertain reader's full skills in and out of context.
